Malloy Incorporated Named Best of the Best in the Best Workplace in the Americas 2010 Competition

Ann Arbor, MI – December 10, 2010 – Malloy Incorporated of Ann Arbor, MI has been awarded the Best Workplace in the Americas designation, Best of the Best 2010, for their exemplary human resources practices. Begun to specifically honor printing companies that provide a superior work environment, this year marks the tenth year of the Best Workplace in the Americas program.

A panel of highly respected HR professionals with decades of experience in the graphic arts industry reviewed the submissions. All of the winning companies actively show their employees that they care about their work environment, their personal goals and ambitions, as well as the needs of the company. Applicants were judged on eight criteria: Management Practices; Work Environment; Training and Development Opportunities; Financial Security; Workplace Health and Safety; Work-Life Balance; Recognition and Rewards; and Health and Wellness Programs.

“One of our three primary management goals is for Malloy to be a good place to work, so we are quite proud to have earned Best Workplace honors every year since the program's inception,” said Bill Upton, President.

Michael Makin, president and CEO of Printing Industries of America, agrees. “Best of the Best winners routinely exhibit the highest commitment to success in many ways, but particularly through their employees. Congratulations to Malloy.”
